Section .TRAVEL.3. Special requirements

.TRAVEL special requirements are available at: <http://www.gandi.net/domain/travel/info>

Eligibility

.TRAVEL domain names are restricted to persons who are significant participants in the travel and tourism industry: Registry Policies (1.Eligibility)

Before applying for a .TRAVEL domain name registration via Our website, You must obtain a Unique Identification Number (UIN) which is a reference indicating that You have submitted Your authentication information to the Registry

The authentication procedure is carried out by the Registry with the support of industry associations or independent authentication organizations ("Authentication Providers") listed at the following address: <http://www.travel.travel/index.php/authenticate-register/authentication-providers>

If You do not already have a "UIN", You must:

- if You are a member of one of these associations, please go to its website and complete the authentication procedure,
- if you are not a member of any of the listed associations, You may authenticate through the Tralliance Authentication Provider (TRAP) by fill out the Registry authentication form.

Once Your authentication application has been sent (Privacy Policy), You will receive Your “UIN” which You will then need to add to Your registration request on Our web site.

Please note that Your “UIN” does not mean that You have successfully accomplished the authentication process as long as the Registry have not checked Your eligibility. During the verification, the Registry may request additional documents from You. Once Your eligibility has been approved, the Registry will inform You of this by email.

If the Registry considers that You are not eligible for the registration of a .TRAVEL domain name, You will be granted a deadline of 30 days to appeal this decision by one of the following procedures (Registry Policies 5. Dispute resolution and denial review):

- Procedure handled by the Registry:
<http://www.travel.travel/index.php/denials-disputes/#1>
- Procedure handled by The Travel Partnership Corporation (TTPC): <http://www.travel.travel/index.php/denials-disputes/#2>

Your “UIN”, once approved, confirms Your eligibility for the registration of a .TRAVEL domain name for up to one year. The Registry will review Your eligibility status annually, or at any other time, to ensure that Your authentication data has not changed.

It is therefore necessary that You keep Your contact information up to date, by informing the Registry of any changes (<http://www.travel.travel/index.php/contact-us>). Your eligibility may then be examined by the Registry.

If during the registration period of Your .TRAVEL domain name, the Registry obtains information that demonstrates that in reality You are not eligible or if You are no longer eligible, the Registry will delete Your domain name without compensation or refund.

Use of Your domain name

Within one year following the date of registration and thereafter throughout the term of the domain name, Your domain name must be used for a website displaying travel content, or used in a similar manner (such as email). The registry carries out verifications, and failing this, will give You a deadline of 60 days to correct this before it will delete Your domain name.

Domain name choice

The rules governing the domain name choice are available at the following address: Registry Policies (2. Names Selection).

Some words are reserved or prohibited (list), in particular:

- ICANN reserved names:
<http://www.icann.org/en/tlds/agreements/travel/travel-appendix-6-23aug10.htm>;
- Geographical names:
<http://www.travel.travel/wp-content/uploads/2008/02/country-domain-name-policy-61.pdf>;
- names containing two characters followed by two hyphens are not allowed.

You can check if the name that You wish register is not reserved or prohibited at the following address:
<http://www.authentication.travel/reserved.jsp>

The owner of a .TRAVEL domain name is not entitled to sell or allocate third level names under his domain name (ex: aaa.mondomaine.travel) to entities that are not owned or controlled by him.

Registration period

The registration term is from 1 to 10 years. To avoid any deactivation or deletion of the domain name, the renewal must be paid and funds cleared before the Expiration date.

Your liability

You agree:

- to provide and maintain accurate, reliable and up-to-date personal contact information,
- that Your .TRAVEL domain name and its use are in the best interests of the community of the travel and tourism industry.

Failing this, the .TRAVEL Registry can delete Your domain name.
